BESTAMERICAN RACERS IN ENGLAND

Legislation Here Sends Sport Abroad-New Norwich Duckpin Team-Umpires for Interscholastic League

ords:

New York, Jan. 31.—The forthcoming English racing season, which begins early in the spring, will attract wide attention in this country because of the large number of American of the large number of American horses that will participate. The de-cidence of racing here as the result of legislation in various states has caused legislation in various states has the best the shipment of many of the best American horses abroad. There the sport is unhampered.

Among the prominent owners who have farees the prominent of the best the shipment of many of the best the shipment of nave sent horses to England are James R. Keene, August Belmont and Harry P. Whitney, John E. Madden, com-monly known as the wizard of the Ammonly known as the wizard of the American turf, has disposed of some of his best horses to the British racing men, while scores of young horses, purchased at the yearling sales here by British sportsmen, will also make their appearance at the English race Colin and Priscillian, two unbeaten racers, head the long list of American horses now preparing for the races on the other side. Other well-known horses there include Ballot, Fair Play, Dinna, Suffragette, Wedding Bells, Sir Martin, who will try for the Derby: Bobbin, Melisande, Helmet and Baby Wolf.

and Baby Wolf.
That the English handicapper holds a high estimate of the American high bred runners is evident from the fact that Ballot, Colin, Fair Play and Priscilian all are asked to carry in their engagements pounds more than England's hear larges. and's best horses.

MIGHTY FIVE WIN

IN BASKETBALL GAME N. F. A. Independents Lost at Y. N C. A., 18 to 9.

Before a well filled gallery at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. Saturday evening, the Mighty Five basketball team administered a defeat to the N. F. A. Indepandents, 18 to 3. Both sides had their supporters out in good numbers, and every fast play and clever shot was the signal for a tunnit of cheers. At the close each team made the gymnasium ring with its special yell.

Considering the fact that this was the first time the Academy five had been together in a game and several of them knew very little about it from practical experience, they put up a strong contest against their better-drilled opponents. The first half ended with the score a tie, 6 to 6, but in the second the training of the Mighty Five began to tell and they opened up a pretty passing game, with accurate shooting, that had the Academy boys outclassed. Many fouls called on the Academy gave the Mighty Five a chance to fatten up their score by free tries, on which Amourn made 6 points, As Manager Ont of the Mighty Five has resigned, the team has now elected Benjamin Morgan as manager. BEETLE AS A SCENT SACHET. Insect of Borneo That Exhales Most Powerful Perfume.

The beaux and belles of Borneo do not have to distil perfume for their hair or handkerchiefs. They have flower-balls is found a magnificent beetle of brilliant emerald green shading to a bright bronze on the wingcases, and touched with gold on the head. This living jewel emits a powerful scent of attar of roses, perfuming the air for many yards around it. A number of them placed in a house will fill it from top to bottom with delightful fragrance. Young girls roll the insect in a bit of cotton cloth and braid it in their black locks, and young men suspend it around their necks like an amulet or an Egyptian scarab. The fragrance gradually grows fainter as the beetle loses its vitality, and dies with it.

The beetle lives in captivity only a few hours, and as the scent expires with it, no way has so far been found to extract or preserve the exquisite odor. The scented beetle appears only when the mimosa is in flower. Neither birds nor lizards will destroy it, and it is protected even from the voraclous woodpecker by its powerful per-

"'Poor fellow, I know you must suffer terribly without shoes this bitter weather. I have none to fit you, but here is a pair of my late husband's skates you can have."

Big Wages Must Be Earned.

A group of feminine wage earners was discussing a news item the other day, one which told the public that the private secretary of the greatest financier of his time is a woman who receives $20,000 a year. There was envy in their voices and bitterness in their words, and nobody seemed to grasp the pith of the story, which was a recital of the secretary's duties. There was a woman who had to be on duty many hours, and possess not only a marvelous memory, but infinite tact and patience. More than that she had to possess marked executive ability.

She has probably been in training for years, and undoubtedly earns every penny of her salary. The girls who envied her could not do the work. because they were not fitted for itprobably they would not under any circumstances, because they were not the hard-working kind. All they could see in the story was the salary, and that made them envious.

A Gladstone Bull.

Mr. Gladstone was once guilty of an amusing bull in a debate on the question of disestablishment. Dilating on the hold held on the affection of the people by the Church of England, he said: "When an Englishman wants to get married, to whom does he go? To the parish priest. When he wants his child baptized, to whom does he go? To the parish priest. When he wants to get buried, to whom does he go?" The house answered with a roar of laughter, in which Mr. Gladstone himself joined, adding: "As I was contrasting the English church with the Irish, a bull is perhaps excusable."

Bruin Too Fond of Crew. A new version of "eating crow" has been furnished in Center county.

Pennsylvania. One evening recently a farmer of Curtin township set a bear trap near his home, baiting it with a piece of meat, as is customary. Aft er the trap had been set a crow, tempted by the mest, was caught, and that night a bear happened that way and ate both the crow and the bait. The farmer set the trup again next evening, and on the following morning the bear was in the trap, having test will take place during the Fulton Writer of Song Frequently Without Place to Lay His Head.

"SWEET HOME" NOT FOR PAYNE,

The song we know so well as "Home, Sweet Home," was originally 'Sweet Home," and John Howard Payne was formerly known as J. Howard Payne. The distilusioning process keeps on apace. It is well known that army bands in time of war are forbidden to play "Sweet Home" on account of the large number of desertions it causes. An officer with the fleet, writing to a friend, referred to the tune in these words: "We allow it occasionally at sea, where the men could not possibly desert without leaping overboard; but when on shore -never!" Imagine what a powerful influence such a tune must have on a homesick man, thousands of miles from wife, mother, sweetheart, bables! Howard Payne's life was one of remarkable vicissitudes. Of an evening he would stroll along the streets looking into the brilliantly lighted parlors. Once in awhile he would see a family circle so happy and forming so beautiful a group that he would stop, gaze upon the scene, and with a sigh passe on. "How often," said he to an intimate friend, "have I been in the heart of Paris, Berlin, London, or some other city, and heard persons singing. or the hand organ playing, 'Sweet Home,' without a shilling to buy the next meal or a place to put my head. The world has, literally, sung it until every heart is familiar with its melody; yes, I have been a wanderer from my boyhood."

Healthful Bath.

A bath much favored by the Kneip pists, along with the bare-feet habit, is formed from a solution of pine needles and pine cones. Cover with cold water about a pound of fresh pine needles and pine cones, broken in small pieces. Boll for half an hour, strain and add the solution to the bath. If you do not want to use the entire amount at once it can be bottled and kept for future occasions. This has a tonic effect both on the nerves and the skin. It can be used on alternate days with a bath of sea salt.
